

Have You Ever Met This Man? By BRIGGS

--	--	--

HELLO ANDY. ARE YOU STILL WORKING FOR THE BULLOCK PEOPLE?

HAH!
I - SHOULD SAY - NOT

LISTEN FRANK - I WOULDN'T WORK FOR A FIRM THAT IS SO LACKING IN APPRECIATION

AFTER ALL THE MONTHS I'VE WORKED FOR THEM AND SHOWED A GAIN FOR THEM IN MY DEPARTMENT WHAT DO YOU THINK THEY SAID WHEN I ASKED FOR A RAISE?

NOTHING DOING!
THE ASK YOU IS

WELL - I TOLD OLD BULLOCK TO JUMP IN

NOW YOU KNOW THAT FAIR TREATMENT. NO: YOU KNOW IT AND I KNOW IT FURTHERMORE I KNOW WHERE I CAN GET TWICE THE SALARY AND BE TREATED LIKE A HUMAN BEING.

HE BROGGED ME TO RECONSIDER MY RESIGNATION BUT I SIMPLY PUT ON MY HAT AND LEFT THEM COLD AND I HAVEN'T SEEN THEM FROM THAT DAY TO THIS!

JAY FRANK GOT A FIVE THAT AINT WORKIN?

Louis Feds Make Spectacular Killing, Then Suffer Consequences.

The jinx of the triple play still stalks the baseball diamond uncontrollably. The St. Louis Feds exploded their killing spree at the Brooklyn Tip Tops at Washington Park yesterday afternoon, and then were beaten by a score of 3 to 2. Five hundred spectators, mostly on foot, witnessed a thrilling exploit, which served as a climax of many brilliant plays. St. Louis excelled in the field, at least.

The Miners accomplished their coup in the sixth inning. Steve Evans walked and took second on a passed ball. Myers, too, received a gift. Holt then smashed a liner to centre field, which was caught by the Brooklyn athletes to-day a score of 11 to 2.

The visitors made seven of their runs off Pennoke in two innings, and also piled up four tallies in the third session off Braser. Philadelphia was blanked for five innings by Gallia.

Harper twirled the last four innings and yielded two runs. Barry was charged with four errors.

The score follows:

PHILADELPHIA (A.L.)		BROOKLYN (N.Y.)
Menzer, 9	1-0	2-0	0
Myers, 5	1-0	2-0	0

Jeff Tesreau, who had missed a couple of turns on the mound on account of an injured digit, was not in his best form. He was hit safely on

The early innings he was exceedingly effective, but evidently he was not quite ready to go the route, for in the seventh and eighth the Giants solved the puzzles which he offered to them. Fletcher led the attack with three singles. Teareau, who was in many

The game did not begin particularly auspiciously for the Giants. In the first inning Tyler struck out both Doyle and Murray, and in the second a chance was thrown away when Fletcher was caught.

Moran went to third and he and Connolly collaborated in a successful double steal. It was successful because Meyers threw badly to second. Woodward Magee walked and Schmidt got way back to get a long drive from bat of Chief Meyers. An even better catch came in the sixth, and this time it was a Giant who stood in the batter's box. Magee began the inning by smashing a drive through Fletcher's legs. This was the second hit for Magee.

In the seventh McGraw's men scored the tying run and one more. Fletcher singled and went to second while Lavanville was throwing out Bush. Robertson pounded the ball down ray fanned, but Doyle was hit. Loh forced him with a bouncer to Egan. Egan passed ball put the Teuton at second and Fletcher's single brought H home.

Brainard muffed an easy assist from Tesreau in the ninth inning with
